Environmental managers applauded

Environmental compliance on the Umatilla Chemical Depot is a matter of team work between UMCDF and UMCD. On the depot side, Commander Lt. Col. Donna Rutten recently honored four individuals for their efforts to protect the environment.

She presented the "Commander's Coin" to Michele Martin, Debbie Lopez, Don Gillis and Dante Nelson.

"Their attention to detail is absolutely remarkable," said Bob Nelson, Risk Management director for the depot. "They are outstanding environmental program managers."
